REGULATIONS RELATING TO LIVESTOCK AND OTHER EXHIBITS ENTERED AT THE SOCIETY'S SHOW

HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT, 1974

1. Safety requirements

Special attention is directed to the safety requirements set out in the Health and Safety at work etc, Act, 1974, and any subsequent legislation. The Society holds exhibitors wholly responsible for the observance of statutory regulations governing the livestock and other exhibits exhibited by them. All exhibitors are accepted for adjudication on the understanding that they are capable of complying with the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the regulations which come under that Act. Failure to comply with statutory regulations will mean that the exhibitor will be asked to remove him/herself and his/her exhibits from the Showground.

2. Persons are admitted to the Showground at their own risk and whilst every endeavor is taken to ensure their safety, the Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by negligence of the Society, its servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (Whether fatal or otherwise), loss of or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expense, however caused.

3. Persons are admitted entry to the Show Vehicles Parks at their own risk and vehicles, their accessories and contents are admitted to and left in the Show Vehicles Parks at the owner's risk and, while every endeavor is taken to ensure the safety thereof, the Society will not (save for death or personal injury caused by negligence of the Society, its servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss of or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expenses however caused.

4. The Society, its officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any person whatsoever while upon the Society's premises, or while leaving the same, for any damage or loss, however caused, to the property of any such person, or for any injury, fatal or otherwise, to any such person.

The Society, its officers or servants, shall not be responsible for any accident, damage or loss, however caused, that may occur to any exhibitor or his servants, or to any animal, articles or property brought onto the Showground, or while entering or leaving or being carried into or out of the said Showground. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage that may be done to, or occasioned by, or arising from any animal, article or property exhibited or brought onto the Showground by him/her and he/she shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions, suits, expenses and claims on account of or in respect of any such damage or injury which may be caused or occasioned. Exhibitors must insure against fire and such liabilities as the exhibitor may incur under these regulations. As a condition of entry to the Show, all livestock exhibitors must have adequate and sufficient Public and Products Liability Insurance cover, proof of cover to be provided on request.

The Society, its officers and servants will not be liable for any errors or mistakes that may happen in placing or penning stock or articles to be exhibited, but the servants in charge of the same must see that they are placed according to their entries.

5. Any owner or attendant in charge of stock will be subject to the orders of the Stewards and will be required to exhibit or parade the animals in his charge at such times as may be directed and any owner or servants disobeying such orders or using abusive or offensive language will be liable to be fined and/or removed from the Showground at the option of the officials of the Society. Persons in charge of animals shall be in attendance each day during the Show.

6. The Stewards, on the recommendations of the Society's veterinary officers, shall have the power to remove from the Showground, any unruly, vicious, deformed or diseased animal, and also the stock, implements or miscellaneous articles belonging to any exhibitor who shall refuse to comply with the instructions given by the Stewards without any responsibility attaching to them or to the Society in consequence of such removal.

7. Judges as well as Stewards shall have the power to remove any unruly animal from the judging ring.

8. Any owner or attendant in charge of stock/exhibits will be subject to the orders of the Society, its Officers or Stewards and any owner or attendant in charge of stock/exhibits disobeying such orders through non-compliance or using abusive, offensive or threatening language or behavior will be removed from the showground at the discretion of the appropriate Sectional Superintendent Steward and be liable to further actions by the Society under 'Regulations Relating to Livestock, item 21.

9. Alcohol - It will be an evictable offence to consume alcoholic drink on any area of the Showground with the exception of the designated alcohol licensed areas.

10. Dogs - Persons are not encouraged to bring dogs onto the showground, but if it is essential to do so then the dog must be kept on a lead at all times. Should dogs be found roaming on the showground during the Show then the Society would have to give further consideration to a total ban. Stray dogs are a serious danger to persons and animals. Please note that NO dogs are allowed in the Livestock (cattle) Building, Sheep Lines, Horse Lines, Fur and Feather Marquee, Produce Marquee, Grandstands, Food Hall or any of the Society's dining Marquees. The Society reserves the right at its absolute discretion to remove from the Showground any dog which the Society deems to be unruly or aggressive'

RULES

1 The Society shall be called "The Anglesey Agricultural Society". Its objects are to promote the breeding of good stock and to encourage Agricultural Improvements and Education.

The Isle of Anglesey shall be the District of the Society.

1. If a judge be prevented from fulfilling his/her engagement for any reason, the Administrator and Superintendent of the relevant section reserve the right to appoint a substitute.

2. In all classes the judge's decision shall be final. Any protest must be lodged in accordance with item 18 in the Society's General Rules & Regulations.

3. The Society reserves the right to refuse any entries without having to provide any reason for doing so.

4. Society reserves the right not to award any prize or commendation to any animal which contravenes the animal welfare regulations.

5. The Society reserves the right to have animals inspected by a Veterinary Officer and to further carry out investigations/tests where necessary.

6. Social Media & Internet Policy - please refer to Society website www.angleseyshow.org.uk>The Society>Policies and Terms and Conditions.

SPECIALCONDITIONS

1. Any person making an entry is held to declare that the exhibits are his/her own property and have been in his/her possession for at least one month before the date of the Show, and is willing to submit the same to any person authorised by the Society to inspect his/her garden(s).

2. Any person showing Plants, Blooms, Vegetables or Fruit etc. not his/her own property or attempting to gain prizes by unfair means shall be dealt with under General Regulation No.21.

3. The Produce Marquee will be open for the reception of exhibits at 4pm on the afternoon previous to the first day of the Show (Floral Art 1.00pm) - exhibitors in the Horticultural Collections and Display Classes may commence staging earlier. All exhibits must be in the Marquee by 8.30am on the first morning of the Show, after which time none will be accepted. ONLY PERSONS EXHIBITING WILL BE ALLOWED IN THE MARQUEE PRIOR TO JUDGING ON THE TUESDAY MORNING. All staging must be completed by 9am when the Marquee will be cleared for judging.

5. An exhibit may not be entered in more than one class. (See also Special Condition No. 22.)

6. Exhibits in the Farm Produce Section must be drawn from a field.

7. Exhibitors who enter 10 or more entries will receive an Exhibitor's ticket of admission to the Show on one day.

8. The judges will be empowered to withhold, divide, or award additional prizes in accordance with the merits of the exhibits.

9. The committee reserves the right to inspect the garden(s) or field of any exhibitor between the receipt of his/her entry and the first day of the show.

10. For each paid-up entry received by the closing date for entries, the exhibitor will receive a competition card and envelope showing the class number and the exhibitor's code number. Under this system, entries will not be accepted after the stipulated closing date. Exhibitors must complete the card and seal it in the correct envelope. The competition envelope must be affixed to the exhibit.

11. If it is found that an Exhibit has not been duly entered, the Exhibitor will be disqualified from receiving a prize for that exhibit, and the prizes will be awarded to the next exhibit in order of merit which is found to have been duly entered.

12. If, on calculating the highest number of points in any section, it is found that a tie has occurred, the winner will be decided on the highest number of first prizes gained.

13. The Society reserves the right to refuse entries by any exhibitor in any section without having to give a reason.

14. In all classes the judge's decision shall be final. Any protest must be lodged in accordance with item 18 in the Society's General Rules & Regulations.
